Dulin & Martin Co.

Woodward & Lothrop, New York-WASHINGTON-Paris

Sale of French Flannels

Less Than Half Price.

SPECIAL purchase, consisting of 1,000 yards Embroidered French Flannels, offered at less than half regular price. They are strictly all wool and embroidered all over in silk dots of contrasting The variety is quite large and includes;

Black dots on grounds of purple, navy, lavender, garnet, cardinal, light blue, pink, cerise, old rose, and gray White dots on purple, lavender, belietzers, and tree. heliotrope, and tan. Red dots on Yale blue and heliotrope. Blue dots on garnet.

> 371/2c the yard. Regular price, 85c.

Second floor-Eleventh st.

The Finest of Everything.

Whatever you may desire

In the line of TABLE LUXU-RIES will doubtless be found in our stocks. A complete line of staple groceries as well as a great variety of delicacies out of the ordinary.

DNew Figs, Dates, Raisins, Mincemeat, Malaga Grapes, Deerfoot Farm Sausage, &c.

G. G. Cornwell & Son Wholesale and Retail Grocers,

1412-1418 Pennsylvania Avenue

Handsome Papeteries

very newest ideas are here. See them to-day.

HER

Expert Engraving

-in the new Tiffany styles at moderate prices on short notice.

THE GOTHAM SHOP

lt runs light. It's rapid; it's the most del-

SEWING

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO. JOS. H. FISKE, Mgr., 802 9th St.

Your Lawn Needs Sodding

THE WASHINGTON HEDGE AND NURSERY CO. 2434 Pa. Ave. N. W.

M. STABLER, Mgr. 2465.

'Phone West 1285. CREDIT TO ALL

Watches, Diamonds,

anything in the Jewelry line. Easy payments. Open evenings

S. H. BERMAN. 1721 Pennsylvania Ave.

SUCCESSFUL DENTISTRY.

little more than in the end.

"I Do Just As I Advertise." DR. CARLETON VAUGHAN, Phone Main 2056. 1012 F St. N. W.

The Herald's Great Home

Circulation Brings results to every advertiser. Your ad in this size space in The Herald at the three months' rate costs only two dollars a day.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

French Naval Attache and Mme. Blanpre Entertain.

de Blanpre, who are established in their new home, 1809 Nineteenth street, entertained their first Washington dinner company last evening at their home. The guests were Mme. de Littiniere, mother of the hostess; the counselor of the embassy, M. des Portes, and Mme, des Portes; Capt Ryan, naval attache of the British Embassy, and Mrs. Ryan; Prince de Lynar and Count Hatzfeldt, both of the Germa Embassy: Miss des Portes, Count de Cam orun, and Mr. Royaards. Lieut. Commander de Blanpre, who joined the embassy during the past summer, is the successor of Lieut. Commander de Faramond, who now commands a ship in the French navy, after a long service in leave of absence in Europe

Mrs. Joseph Crawford entertained ves erday at the Chevy Chase Club at one of he largest debutante luncheons of the season, for her daughter, Miss Caryl Crawford.

Rev. George Calvert Carter, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Carter were the hosts at a large reception last evening in the parish hall, at Fourteenth and Corcoran streets. Several hun ired members of the parish were present A musical programme by the quartet of he church, which includes Mrs. Alfred T age, soprano; Mrs. John Roberts, alto ohn L. Apple, tenor, and Mr. Schaefer added to the pleasure of the occa-A buffet supper was served during inted by yellow-capped candles. The laes assisting Rev. and Mrs. Calvert in reving were the wives of the vestrymen of Andrew's, those present being Mrs. M. r. Endicott, Mrs. Sprigg Poole, Mrs. Huske, Mrs. J. T. Earnshaw, Mrs. George Barrie, Miss J. Burden, Mrs. S. J. Millard, Mrs. W. W. Safford, and Mrs. W. M. Will-

Mrs. Theodore Shonts, wife of the chairnan of the Canal Commission, with the The Gotham Shop Misses Shonts, will sail from Panama to-morrow, and come direct to Washingon, where their new home on New GIFT FOR Hampshire avenue is ready for the winter. Mrs. Shonts will entertain at a large ea on Tuesday, December 18, which will Our display of fancy Box Papers mark the Washington debut of her young warming for what promises to be one of and that serves to while away an evening seasons. nost hospitable homes of the year. Mrs. or an afternoon in an innocent, if profit-Shorts and her daughters were among less, manner? The story of "Caught n Elizabeth Brice, who came to Washingthe Americans presented at the Court of the Rain"-but that isn't necessary. St. James during the past summer, and later enjoyed many delightful experiences

1411 F Street. is at the home of her brother, Mr. George

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cromwell will not eturn to Washington this season on acount of Mrs. Cromwell's health, but will ake a house in Charleston, S. C. Mr. d Mrs. Cromwell and family are now

Raleigh, N. C., will take place to-day at noon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Slater, 119 Second street,

Mrs. Burton Harrison, who went abroad early in the autumn, is now at Cannes, Charles Poor, Col. and Mrs. Denny, Miss where she has leased the Chateau St. Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Biddle, Miss with a desired for propagatory and the characteristics. Michel, owned by Lord Glenesk, for the homes" this season, on Sunday evening at "Red Nock," in Cleveland Park, S. M. caeap, worthless Fabian played in his usual faultless style, kinds, but is best and William Morse Rummel gave several selections on the violin. Miss Clara Drew, who has recently returned from Paris, also sang some French songs, and the host of the evening, Mr. Wrightson, sang Teeth worth $8 for $5; teeth worth $10 for $7.50; eeth of absolutely best material obtainable for $10.

Porcelain crowns, $3.59; best gold crowns, $1 up; two groups of songs, and closed the even-lastic fillings, $1.00. reputable method free with all miss Arley Mott at the plano. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee B.

The welcome was a rousing one, but not more than the little man deserved. Master Cabriel is a unique and distinctive ing by reading "Enoch Arden," with at Chase's to welcome "Buster Brown. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Scott, Miss Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Delano,

Fine Diamonds

FOR over one hundred (100) years it has been a sufficient guarantee of the quality of bought at Galt's.

GALT & BRO., Established Over a Century,

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers, 1107 Penna. Ave.

Ham, of Mexico City; Mr. Wiltshire, Mrs. cent elections, saying that his only inter-L. J. Perry, Miss Hildreth, of Brattle-boro, Vt., and Miss Cecella Bryan. est in politics at present is that of a pri-vate citizen.

The annual tea for the bables of the MISS CRAWFORD MAKES DEBUT on the first floor will be used for the sale ties. of tea dainties, and also a fine of assort- During the coming winter Gen. Miles exdies. The ladies in charge of the sale and Boston. Andrews' Parish Hall-Mrs. Shonts and the Misses Shonts Will Sail from Panama for Washington To-

Mrs, Frank M. Bennett, wife of Lieut. Commander Bennett, U. S. N., has re-

MILES HOME FROM LONDON.

A Correspondent Tells How He Was to Washington a few days ago after a trip abroad, extending over three months. He is at home at his residence. 1736 N He is at home at his residence, 1736 N here. The general must have spent a street. Gen. Miles declines to discuss pubsamall fortune on the masses of blooms Roberto Centaro, attache of the Italian lic affairs of any sort, declares that he has small fortune on the masses of blooms he ordered for women who were giving mo opinion to express concerning the reparties for him."

vate citizen. Foundling Hospital will take place Thurs-day of this week, not in Thanksgiving the San Francisco school authorities, Gen.

In regard to the Japanese queston, at least that phase of it which has recently week, as in former years. The hours of Miles would not express himself, save to receiving will be from 3 to 7, when the say that the problem opened up grave twoscore or more small inmates will be possibilities, and that it might not be set-on view, and a complete inspection of the declined to express any on view, and a complete inspection of the hospital is invited. The large ward opinion as to the rights or wrongs of the stand taken by the Pacific Coast authori-ment of dolls, homemade cakes and can- pects to divide his time between this city from Panama for Washington To-Carl Casey, Mrs. W. S. Knox, Mrs. Johere. He has been feted and fussed over morrow—Other Society News.

seph Auerbach, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. W. H. Bayly, Mrs. Hocke, Mrs. Shirley Bowles, Mrs. King Edward summoned him to Bucking-ham Palace privately, and they lunched together, when they had a long and interesting talk about military affairs. The King was considerably impressed with the general and description of the French Embassy, and Mme. the general's conversational and descriptive powers.
"What a handsome man he is! I hear the turned to her home, 2121 California avenue. Lieut Commander Bennett, now commanding the U. S. S. Glavier, accompanied the expedition that towed Dewey to Manila.

What a handsom sent to his eyes, which will be inserted in the next edition of her poems. The men have all been trying to find out where his tailor lives, for it is admitted far and near there never was such a fit. At a tea the other afternoon every woman was gushing about his manners. They said they were 'too perfect for anything,' and that he was 'Chesterfield resurrected.'

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired, returned a sheaf of flowers to your hostess if she nounced Hit at Belasco Theater.

ton comparatively unknown, immediately clever to win a round of applause.

every sense the biggest kind of a hit.

Ham Tree" at the Columbia.

overflowing last night upon the re-appearance of McIntyre and Heath in "The Ham Tree." Those who go to see Mc-with a desire for uproarious mirth, although they don't object to a few good songs and spectacular effects on the side, two hours and over the duo extracted continuous laughter, the fun reaching its nost acute stage during that mournfully nirthful argument which took place at he water tank when the remnant of the

'busted" minstrel troupe halted on its ootsore journey, the aforesald remnant onsisting of James McIntyre, as Alex-

under Hambletonian, and T. K. Heath,

as Henry Jones. The humor dispensed is of the spontaneous variety, in which the personality figures as well as the quality of the jokes, and the combinaion seems to meet with unanimous ap-

There are other things, however, which serve admirably for purposes of diversion.

"The Social Whirl" is well-named

OPENING NIGHT AT THEATERS

William Collier Explodes Countless "The Social Whirl" Scores a Pro-Squibs in "Caught in the Rain."

Only a person hardened by success in the ways of the impertinent farceur like Mr. There is a whirl of excitement in every William Collier would presume to present moment of the bright musical comedy to his admiring constituents a spluttering which came to the Belasco Theater last string of laughter-stuffed squibs and far- evening, and as for the society-what was cical incidents wound in and out and not present in the large audience was dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as that which makes up something doing all the time during the dramatic plot as the framework of "Caught in the Rain," performance, and hit upon hit was the the new Collier comedy presented for the order of the evening, while so many bright A New Owen Davis Melodrama at evening from a long table decorated first time in this city at the National song hits received so many encores that white and yellow chrysanthemums and Theater last night. But the squibs were it was very late when the final curtain packed almost as close together as firefor reflection, it would merely have taken another and longer laugh at the well-known unpredictableness of the eccentricity of Collier genius, and let it go at that. For what's the use of getting serious about pleasant nonsense that really is attracting attention. The daughters, as well as serve as a house. has no pretensions to be anything else, has been seen in Washington for several acted. Creditable portrayals were given by Miss Violet Tregurtha, Blanche Hen-

> It is all about a noble and benevolent impressed the audience as a clever comein the London season and on the Continent.
>
> Mrs. S. Kingsbury Curtis, of New York, is at the home of her brother, Mr. George X. M Lanahan and Mrs. M Lanahan, 2031
>
> Q street, northwest, for the week. This is Mrs. Curtis' first visit to Washington ago. Mr. Curtis will join her here later in the London season and on the Continent.
>
> and heroic young mining engineer who dienne, with a clear, strong singing voice is supposed to be hopelessly bashful and scary to the limit when it comes to dealing with women, leaving and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy Western soubrette in her own limitable and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy Western soubrette in her own limitable and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy Western soubrette in her own limitable and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy Western soubrette in her own limitable and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy Western soubrette in her own limitable and much personal beauty. She catches the spirit of the plece perfectly. Ada Lewis, always a stanch favorite, gave an amusing character sketch of the breezy William to exploit Nat's parodice and funny sayings, it proved entertaining. Coblenz, Bonn, Marksburg, and other the fird view of the west. The limit when it to make the second, or and much personal beauty. She catches the second, or and much personal beauty. She catches the weitle Mark E. Swan has written to exploit Nat's parodice and funny sayings, it proved entertaining. Coblenz, Bonn, M and heroic young mining engineer who dienne, with a clear, strong singing voice since her marriage in London two years ago. Mr. Curtis will join her here later in the week.
>
> Mrs. Robert I. Fleming has issued cards for a tea on December 7 at her home on Massachusetts avenue, when her daughter, Miss Fleming, will make her debut, Mrs. Hobart Chatfield Taylor has left the Virginia Hot Springs for Chicago, where she will join her sister, Mrs. Robert McGann.
>
> Some magnificent gowns and delivered a tained enough raps at things local to stock ine, working off some of the brightest of the heres. Some magnificent gowns and delivered a tained enough raps at things local to stock ine, working off some of the brightest and most explosive of the squibs with the heroshim, Adelade Sharp was fairly good in Maude Raymond's role of Beezy, but lacks the aggressive magnetism of the successful singer of coon songs. Her "Bill show, the heres. Charles W. Udell, as Heuben Quiet, nervously touch-and-go work of the star and some of his assistants. There is, of course, a love story in the plece, or there wouldn't be a melodrative for the correct of the control of Madeline Grey, but lacks the aggressive magnetism of the successful singer of coon songs. Her "Bill show, the piece, aided, of course, by the clever, quiet, nervously touch-and-go work of the star and some of his assistants. There is, of course, a love story in the plece, or there wouldn't be a melodrative for the course, by the clever, quiet, nervously touch-and-go work of the star and some of his assistants. There is, of course, a love story in the plece, or there wouldn't be a melodrative for the control of Madeline Grey, the helress. Charles W. Udell, as Heuben of the effect, and the flaskins, a Yankee hiventor, and Delia Stacy, as Angellan Pettijohn, in conjunction with Mr. Wills, carried off the commodern, progressive, manufacturing distinct of the piece, aided, of course, a love story in the star and some of his assistants. There is, of course, a love story in the plece, aided, of course, by the clever, quiet and some of his assistants. The commodern Comstock, in the last act. The setting in this act shows the interior of a hunting club in the Rocky Mountains, a very at-

Commander J. C. Fremont, U. S. N. pany have the opportunity to display some very pretty gowns. The first act shows a street in Denver, where the rainat Paris and at St. Petersburg, has con- storm which gives the piece its name cluded his visit to Tangiers and Fez and returned to Paris, where Mrs. Fremont and daughters are established for the and daughters are established for the lit wasn't rain at all, but just a gentle, For," composed by E. Ray Goetz, and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and some stabilished for the lit wasn't rain at all, but just a gentle, For," composed by E. Ray Goetz, and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and heroine. But so was "You're Just the Girl I'm Looking humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the entire length of the precent and humor during the e dust-laying shower that need not have detained any one from going about his or author of the play, as Sir Bryce Forres-The marriage of Miss Louise Slater, of ter, the Englishman astray in Colorado, his city, to Camden Allen, formerly of who seemed to have left his insular prejudices as well as accent at home. As the villain, Mr. George Nash was as brutal and objectionable a person as his lines called for. Nothing could be better in its ine than the Bob Livingston of Waliace Miss Shacklette, of Washington, who is be guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Place brisk, and likable young deadbeat, with a the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Place Phillips, of New York, has returned to the latter city from a week end at Canoe Place Inn, Good Ground, N. Y.

brisk, and likable young deadbeat, with a great capacity in the cocktail and highball line. Miss Jane Laurel, as Violet, was likewise clever and engaging. The play went with reasonable breeziness. nsidering that this is its second weel In the audience were Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Chew, Mr. and Mrs. Horace West-cott, Mrs. John Rodgers, the Misses Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Lloyd Wrightson | Laurence Benet, Mrs. Hibbs and Miss | and last evening every expectation in the gave the first of their musical "at Hibbs, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Browne, Mr. way of gloom-chasing was fulfilled. For and Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Walter Far-well, Miss Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapin, Miss Williams, and Prof. Willis

Buster Brown and Spike Rousingly Welcomed at Chase's.

Juvenile Washington was out in full force yesterday afternoon and last night Mrs. Eli Shelby Hammond, Miss Eno theatrical fixture, and an artist in his own particular fashion. With his clever company in a sketch called "Auntie's Visit," ie gave an entertaining and amusing perrmance for "grown ups" as well as children. George Ali as "Spike," Buster's Frederick V. Bowers is present with popu-dog, gave one of his deservedly famous lar and topical songs, making great hits Little Immigrant" is an enjoyable sketch, and was well carried by Vill Lester and best banjoist's in vaudeville.

nimal impersonations. James K. Murry with "Sweethearts in Every Town" and and Clara Lane proved interesting in a "Good-Bye, Sweet Old Manhattan Isle," while Belle Gold repeated her success Both have good voices, that of Miss Lane being particularly pleasing. "The Little Immigrant" is an enjoyable sketch, Sherlock Baffles, contributed some amusing novelties in the line of jugglery, and an article to know that it was bought at Galt's.

Charles Acker. Will Lester's make-up as the young German is little short of perfect. Mr. Lester is also the author of the observable of the property of the sketch. Sadie Jansell did some imitations of well-known actors, of which that of senting many pleasing costume effects, David Warfield in the "Music Master" and rendering some catchy sengs of the was by far the best. Her accent and expression are good.

Herr Grais' "Baboon Prodigies" proved Time," and "When the Cat's Away," be-almost as popular with the youthful contingent as Buster Brown. The loop-the-lcop act by the baby baboon was something new. Maybelle Meeker and Franco Piper completed the bill. Miss Meeker is object is fun, and not an opening is left pretty and graceful, but she should stop through which any melancholy thought trying to sing. Mr. Piper is one of the might perchance creep in. In fact, there is no time for thought of any kind, and for pianoforte making that has been defined as "an infinite capacity for taking pains." The result of over eighty-two years of application of this genius to the production of musical tone is shown in the Chickering of to-day.

Piano Warerooms 1328 F Street

WASHINGTON, D. C.

the Academy.

A new melodrama, entitled "From packed almost as close together as fire-crackers in the bunch, and as they spluttered and cracked and exploded on the stage there was a steady reverberation of responsive laughter from the good-sized audience, which was thus left little chance to use its critical faculties in reflecting on the raw absurdity of the supposititiously serious substratum of things on which the play was based. No doubt, if the audience had had the opportunity for reflection, it would merely have taken Tramp to Millionaire," served to introduce | Maximillian Dick, violin virtuoso. Miss shaw, Claude Payton, and John Hughes.

Nat Wills Pleases Old Friends.

Nat. M. Wills, a popular Washington boy, is the bright and particular attrac-terially to his reputation in his present ance at the New Lyceum.

The Jolly Girls Burlesquers, featuring The second act takes place in a handsome reception room during and after a dinner, and here the ladies of the comdinner, and here the ladies of the comgave a natural touch to a small part, berole of Spike, a part that is peculiarly the Chine towns are much like Plittsburg or Chicago. A pall of smoke overhangs ceum this week. Mr. Hayes has, in the role of Spike, a part that is peculiarly

Next Monday the subject of the lecture will be 'Climbing the High Alps.' and ing barely on the stage two minutes as fitted for his physique. Tail, broad shoulthe court clerk, but was sufficiently dered, and of a deep bass voice, he is the The greatest song hit of the evening Mr. Hayes' comedy is of a high order, and sung by Miss Brice to a whistling ac- formances. During the action of the capt. and Mrs. Henry Metcalf returned from Europe yesterday, having arrived in from Europe yesterday, having arrived in of the hersite. When the supporting the face and the supporting companion of the hersite. The face and the supporting companion of the hersite. The face and the supporting companion of the hersite. The face and the supporting companion of the hersite. The face and the supporting companion of the hersite. The face and the supporting companion of the support New York from London on Sunday on the Minnehaha.

New York from London on Sunday on the Minnehaha.

New York from London on Sunday on the Minnehaha.

Sherry contributed topical songs, the Eccentric Comedy family appeared as acrobat, nor was Mr. Grant Stewart, co-Kids," sung by Miss Brice, Mr. Bond, bats; the De Kabrys were good clog dan-Training School, held at the residence of and Mr. Ross, proved a delicious bit of cers, and Harriet Belmont was a vivacious Maj. Weeden, 1325, Twelfth street north tomfoolery, which the audience was re- soubrette. uctant to allow to terminate. There is a tractiveness, gorgeously costumed, and singing well. "The Social Whirl" is in

The appearance of Miss Yaw to-day at the Columbia Theater will afford a pleasurable opportunity to many to hear this 17., A. M. F. : 67, treasurer. Big Audience Crowds Around "The famous coloratura soprano.

After an absence of ten years in Eu-rope, which was devoted to serious and portment among high school students. The Columbia Theater was filled to artistic execution and interpretation ar recognized and appreciated wherever she sings. Miss Yaw is assisted by Miss Georgiella Lay, solo pianist, and Mr Lay is well known to American audiences of the principal European cities, and i ranks of the violin virtuosi.

ELMENDORF LECTURES AGAIN

Delights Large Auidence with Illustrated Talk on "The Rhine."

"Down the Rhine," past the castles of old and the factories of the new era, Dwight Elmendorf carried the large audience in the New National yesterday afternoon. That the scenes were as de lightful as those of "Holland." seen the week before, was attested by the close attention shown and the frequent applause given the lecturer and the views

After telling the audience that the first, the second, or even the third view of the Rhine. Mr. Elmendorf declared that I who is well known here, has added ma- "Jolly Girls" Give Good Perform- sometimes had to wait for several days before the atmosphere was clear enough ence with him in his quiet and refined Edmond Hayes, as Spike Hennesey, the the Rhine towns are much like Plittsburg Next Monday the subject of the lecture will be, 'Climbing the High Alps," and the journey will begin where the lecture left off yesterday.

STUDENTS ELECT OFFICERS.

Training School Cadets Organize fo Intellectual Advancement.

At a meeting of the cadet officers and west, the following officers were elected luctant to allow to terminate. There is a large chorus of beautiful girls in "The large chorus of beautiful girls in "The Ellen Beach Yaw at the Columbia H. U. Law, '07, president; Lieut, Brooks, A. M. T. S., '06, H. U. Medical, '10, vice the large chorus of the columbia of the columbi sident; Maj. Henry Weeden, A. M. T '06, secretary; Maj. J. M. Saunder A. M. P. S., '05, Washington Normal The purpose of the organization is to

AT SLOAN'S GALLERIES. 1407 G Street, Near U. S. Treasury.

A Grand Auction Event The CARTER SALE

RARE OLD MAHOGANY FURNITURE, in all conceiva ble shapes and of all periods. SOLID SILVER, A QUANTITY OF SHEFFIELD TABLE WARE, RARE CHINA and GLASS-WARE, LOUIS XV AND XVI GILT PARLOR SUITES, SCREENS, ART OBJECTS, HALL CLOCKS, MANTEL TIONS, not for sale IN THE SHOPS TO-DAY; STANDARD and POPULAR LITERATURE, OIL PAINTINGS, EN-GRAVINGS, WATER COLORS, METAL GOODS, CURIOS, &c., all more particularly described in the catalogue, and to be sold AT PUBLIC AUCTION

At the Sloan Galleries, 1407 G Street, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, November 21, 22, and 23, 1906,

At 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. each day. ON PUBLIC VIEW TO-DAY, November 20, 1906,

When catalogues can be had.

Note.—The sale of the John Kimberly Mumford collection of Asiatic Floor Coverings will open at our Galleries during the week of November 26.

Catalogues for both events can be had by addressing C. G. SLOAN & CO., Auctioneers, 1407 G St.

Thanks-Giving Carver Specials.

WE are offering a num-ber of very excellent values in thoroughly reliable Carving Sets, including the following:

3-piece Stag Handled Carving Sets - sterling silver mounted-blades fully guaranteed; exceptional values,

Prices $2.50 and $2.75

Other 3-piece Stag-handled Sets, $3.00, $3.50, and $5.00. Stag-handled Carvers; Knife and Fork; $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00 pair. 3-piece Stag-handled Carving Sets, elaborately mounted in Sterling Silver; $6, $7.50, $9, $11.50, $14, and $15. Pearl-handled 3-piece Carving Sets, $3 up.
Antique Ivory-handled Carving |
Sets, $6.75. Sets, $6.75.

Silver - mounted, Ivory - handled Carving Sets, $16.00.

7 - piece Elaborately Mounted Carving Sets, $13.59, $15.00, and $22.50.

Game Carvers.

Table Knives.

Dulin & Martin Co.,

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

A GOOD SALAD is indispensable to a good dinner. The use of our I UCCA OLIVE OIL is the best means of insuring satisfactory results. Pure, rich. Full pt. 50c | Full qt. 90c

* Thompson Pharmacy Frank C. Henry, Prop., 703 15th St.

Holiday Stationery.

The finest assortment in town. Very Paper. You can buy of us and pay wholesale prices! Our prices are the R. P. Andrews Paper Co. Inc. 627-29 Louisiana Avenue. 626-28-30 D Street.

CFNew stock of 1907 Diaries

"Watch this sign daily." 25% on $1,000 HAYES-SHARP REALTY CO. "THERE IS REALITY IN OUR REALTY." A Clinical designation

Best Elgin Creamery Butter

2 cents below any store in Washington. Special bargains can always be had at any of our stores.

GREAT Atlantic & Pacific TEA CO. Main Store, Gor. 7th and E Sts. N. W. Branches In All Parts of the City. Stands In All Markets.

COOK WITH COKE WASHINGTON GASLIGHT CO.

Three Carloads

413 TENTH STREET N. W.

of FANCY FLORIDA ORANGES RECEIVED EVERY WEEK. 1,000 boxes of Messina Lemons received this week. Choice varieties of Lemons, Oranges, Grape Fruit, Malaga Grapes, Cranberries, Irish Potatoes, Horseradish, Figs. Dates, Olives, Macaroni, Cocoanuts, Olive Oil, Cheese, Chestnuts, Italian Cantaloupes, Prickly Pears, Jos. Di Giorgio & Co., 921 Louisiana Avenue.

85c Doz. for 12 Cabinet Fotos. Special Offer for 30 Days. FABER, 802 7th Street. Formerly 430 Seventh Street.

Herald Want Ads. 1 Cent a Word